GDR VISITORS IN THE USSR

Tägliche Rundschau
Berlin, 3 Dec 1953

At present, a group of artists and musicians from the GDR is visiting in Moscow. On 30 November 1953, they gave a concert at the Moscow Conservatory: individual performers included Dora Zschille, soloist with the Dresden City Opera; Erwin Milzkott, flutist; and Dieter Zechlin, pianist. Rudolf Appelt, GDR Envoy Extraordinary and Ambassador Plenipotentiary to the USSR, attended the concert.

On 2 December, a delegation of public health officials from the GDR departed for the USSR. The delegation will study the organization and installations of the Soviet public health service.

Members of the delegation include Luitpold Steidle, Minister of Public Health and head of the delegation; Prof Dr Hermann Redetzky, Meritorious Physician and Deputy Minister of Public Health; Dr Rudolf Weber, Meritorious Physician and secretary of the delegation; and Dr Paul Stahnke, Dr Friedrich Warnecke, Dr Rudolf Baumann, and Dr Ernst Rothenbuecher, all of whom are Meritorious Physicians.
